

BURIAL RIGHT CERTIFICATE

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE HARTSDALE CANINE CEMETERY

- (1) This Burial Right Certificate grants the plot-holder the privilege of burying deceased pet animals in the Hartsdale Canine Cemetery in the designated location set forth in this document. The Burial Right Certificate is not a deed, but merely grants the holder a burial right subject to certain conditions, stipulations and limitations as set forth below.
- (2) All holder of burial rights are required to contribute his/her proportionate share towards the maintenance and general upkeep of the Cemetery. This may be accomplished by assessing an annual charge payable in advance or by a single payment to the Perpetual care Trust Fund.
- (3) In the event the annual charge on any lot remains unpaid for three years after such charge becomes due and payable, this Corporation shall have the right to serve by ordinary mail addressed to the plot-holder of records at the address last known to this Corporation. This notice will advise the holder that all rights, including the rights to any monuments affixed thereto, shall cease and terminate and will revert to this Corporation if payment is not received within six months after the mailing of such notice. The Hartsdale Canine Cemetery, Incorporated is not responsible for any consequences resulting from the failure of mail to reach the plot-holder.
- (4) The annual care payment referred to above may be dispensed with, provided that Perpetual Care is obtained by the plot-holder.
- (5) No interment or disinterment may be made except by this Corporation.
- (6) All monument work is subject to the approval of this Corporation
- (7) All plantings are subject to the approval of this Corporation
- (8) This Corporation is not responsible for any personal belongings or memorabilia left at the gravesite or anywhere on the Cemetery grounds.
- (9) This Corporation may from time to time make such rules and regulations as its Board of Directors may deem requisite and proper to secure and promote the general objectives of the Cemetery.
