

15 April 2009

Present: C. Haver, J. Huber, G. Miller, D. Sergeant, R. Stevenson, L. Turner, P. Wooster

The meeting was called to order at 7:35 pm. C. Haver chaired.

The minutes of the 18 March meeting were accepted as submitted.

Budget: The HDC has $520.44 left in this fiscal year.

Barn survey: Rachel Carley, an historian from Litchfield, has been chosen to conduct the survey. G. Miller and W. Walker met with her and Barbara Henry to review the contract and the list of Roxbury barns. R. Carley is excited about this project and will start ASAP.

Roxbury market: The fence has not yet been erected. G. Miller will e-mail R. Berman to find out when it will be in place.

Preservation award: Nominations are being solicited through the Roxbury Newsletter. The HDC discussed the barn reconstruction at Squire Road and South Street as a possibility. L. Turner, whose house was recognized last year, needs help in researching his home's history.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:10 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
