

Wisconsin Preparedness Forum III

Preparing Our Community Better

Featured Topics

The Wisconsin Preparedness Forum is an innovative and participatory approach to strengthening our communities through joint awareness, planning and exercising. Through the integration of public, non-profit, business and individual efforts the Forum will enhance local community, state and regional capabilities to protect against threats and respond to and recover efficiently from significant attacks and disruptions. Some of the feature topics include:

- Swine Flu: Lessons Learned & Preparedness for Upcoming Flu Season
- Active Shooter & Workplace Violence
- Cross Sector Information & Resource Sharing
- Cyber & Physical Infrastructure Security
- Business Continuity/Continuity of Operations
- Volunteer Management
- Long Term Disaster Recovery

Who Should Attend

Those who attended a previous WI Preparedness Forum as well as administrators, department managers, and staff in the following occupations:
